

Here's what happened to one of the two baby-killing Zeppelins that raided the English coast early one Sunday morning last month—the result of a British aviator's skill and daring.
Underwood & Underwood

The Dutch armored cruiser Zeeland en route to Java from Holland via the Panama Canal, as seen at anchor in the Hudson. She is the first Dutch warship to visit this city in eight years.
Underwood & Underwood

The new type of gas mask adopted for our troops on the front line which was recently demonstrated to Congress by representatives Heintz and Tilson.

Scene of the washout that caused a trolley crowded with sight-seers to plunge over the twenty-foot embankment into the headwaters of the Whirlpool Rapids in the river gorge below Niagara Falls last Sunday. Ten dead, four missing and twenty-four injured is the accident's casualty toll.
Intern. Film Serv.

Above: The Pennsylvania Railroad is training women for its telegraph service. How your youngster would like to be turned loose in this classroom, with its model trains, tracks and signal apparatus!
Intern. Film

Below: New York's Junior Police put a final punch in recruiting week with a splendid parade down Fifth Avenue. On the left: The parade being reviewed by Police Commissioner Woods from his stand in Madison Square.
*Greely Photo Service
Underwood & Underwood*

Women operators on the mammoth building re-regulars for service.
G. Curtis

At the right: Training to be navigators in Uncle Sam's new merchant marine. One of Captain Huntington's classes "shooting the sun" in New York Harbor.

